HOME Department.

Sir,

The Principal, Textile Institute, Madras, in his letter No.2994, dated 7th December 1937 suggests that the designation of the wool spinning supervisor be changed to that of Manager Wool Section, on the grounds that he being a well paid technical subordinate his duties may be so enlarged thereby as to hold him responsible for the working of the entire wool manufacturing section. There are at present an Oil Engine Driver and a Cumbly Weaving Foreman working under the Supervisor. If he held responsible in the manner suggested he will be able to supervise and extract better work from them. His change of designation will not entitle them to any additional allowance at present.

2. I therefore submit that the designation of the present Wool Spinning Supervisor appearing at page 39 of the Half yearly list of Non Gazetted officers of the Jail Department will be changed into "Manager Wool Section, Central Jail, Bellary.

Sir,

I furnish below the information called for seriatim.-

(1). The wool spinning supervisor is now only in charge of Spinning Section. He supervises spinning of wool and the relative machinery.

(2). He is not now supervising the work of the cumbly weaving foreman. If his designation is changed to manager, wool Section, he will be made responsible for the full process of the cumbly manufacture and to supervise the work of the cumbly weaving foreman.

(3). The Superintendent has recommended the grant of an additional allowance to the supervisor, but I have ruled it out. If the wool spinning supervisor later on represents that he should be given any additional allowance on account of the additional work involved the question will be separately dealt with, after satisfying myself during my inspection of the Jail that he really deserves additional allowance for the additional responsibility.

Inspection Report of the Principal, Government Textile Institute, Washermanpet, Madras, No.2944/37 dated 7th December 1937.

Report on the visit of the Principal, Government Textile Institute Madras, to the Central Jail, Bellary, in connection with the meeting of the Wool Purchase Committee for passing the balance of bulk supplied of wool for the Jail.

I visited the Gentral Jail, Bellary, on 29-11-1937 in connection with the meeting of the Wool Purchase Committee for passing the balance of bulk supplies of wool for the Jail.

2. The Committee met at 11 a.m. to pass the remaining supply of grey wool. The Inspector General of Prisons, the Principal of the Government Textile Institute, Madras, and the Superintendent, Central Jail, Bellary were present. The Deputy Director of Agriculture, III Circle, Bellary was unable to be present. The Committee examined 36 boras of grey wool and passed 12,000 lbs. of wool.

3. After the examination and passing of the bulk supply the Inspector General informed the Wool Contractor to the expenditure the Government Departments had to incur owing to the Committee having to meet a second time for passing the wool. The Inspector-General also perused the correspondence received by the Jail from the Kolar Sheep Breeders' Association and livestock Research Station, Hosur, with regard to supplied of wool. As the samples of wool sent by the Sheep Breeders' Association, and Livestock Research Station were found to be of good quality and also as their prices were more favourable, it was suggested that all the available stock from these two sources might be purchased in future years without enforcing upon them stipulations usually embodied in the contractor's agreement. The Superintendent was instructed to obtain and furnish certain information to facilitate the consideration of the above suggestion. The Superintendent was also asked to ascertain and report the addresses of large buyers of Bangalore, their terms and conditions of business the rate of commission etc

4. The Inspector General informed the wool Contractor for this year that as he happened to be the only tenderer who tendered for all the varieties of wool, his tender was accepted and although he had reduced the rates somewhat below the tender price, the figure was still high and that he should endeavour to lower his quotations at least to the level of other Farms. The Contractor explained that he was put to considerable hardship owing to the enforcement of certain conditions in the Jail contract. He had to deposit a sum of Rs.2,000/- and he had to borrow this amount at a higher rate of interest, nearly 9%, while the interest allowed by the Jail was on the deposit was only 1½%. Further, the deposit is retained for a year until the supplies of wool required during the year are completed. This can be obviated if the Jail will endeavour to ascertain its entire requirements of wool for the year, effect the purchase in a single meeting of the Committee, and settle his account. The Contractor also stated that he had to lay out finance to the extent of about Rs.10,000 for purchase of wool, incur cartage, Railway charges, go-down rent and also purchase gunnies and that he has to stock in excess of the quantity stipulated in the agreement since the conditions of the contract provide as follows:-- "The quantity mentioned in the schedule hereto against each item is only approximate. The contractor may be required during the period of the contract to supply goods in such quantities as the Superintendent may from time to time require, the total of which may exceed the figure mentioned in the schedule against same. The Superintendent is not bound to order any specified quantity or any quantity at all." Often, he has to run the risk of all the quantity of wool collected by him not being taken by the Jail. He also represented that the Jail weighs the wool with gunnies and does not weigh all the empty gunnies for deducting their weight, but takes some average weight for the gunnies which is a risk both to the Jail and to the Contractor. He further stated that before the meeting of the Wool Purchase Committee, the Superintendent of the Jail takes small quantities of wool from each borah and subjects the lot to a rigorous test by washing the wool, drying and passing it through the Spiral willow, then passing it through a second tender-hook willow machine. As this stage, the wool is freed from all impurities including hair and short fibres. The Superintendent submits a report as to the percentage of wastage thus ascertained. With this report before the Committee they examine the bulk supply and reject any borah which is not up to sample. It is one of the conditions of the contract that if the wastage exceeds 15%, its value should be deducted from the contractor's bill. The Contractor represented that such deduction is not made at the time of payment for the wool supplies, but is effected by adjustment at the end of the year against the security deposit of Rs.2000 made by the Contractor. He pleaded that this practice should be discontinued. He also suggested that the tenders should be called for in June.

5. The Contractor appealed that arrangments might be made by the Jail to purchase the entire requirements ~~of~~ of wool in one lot and that he might be paid immediately after the Committee had passed the wool, holding over a sum of Rs.500 for deduction for the weight of gunnies. The Inspector General stated that he would give careful consideration on the matters of his representation. If effect is given to the above arrangement, there is henceforth likelihood of a larger number of tenderers quoting for supplied of wool for the Jail.

6. Wool Spinning Supervisor: The Superintendent suggested that as this Supervisor is a well paid technical subordinate, his designation may be changed to Manager, Wool Section, and his duties enlarged, so that he may be held directly responsible for the working of the entire wool manufacturing Section. He is at present in charge of the oil engine and the spinning mill only, while the cumbly weaving Foreman is low paid, drawing only Rs.28/-. The Superintendent desired that this Foreman should be placed under the control of the Wool Manufactory Manager suggested above. I support his recommendation, I further suggest that the Wool Spinning Supervisor may henceforth maintain a regular Stores book in which the quantity of raw wool issued to him and the actual weight of yarn spun by him should be recorded, with the relative dates. He should also record the waste produced. The Store Keeper should be asked to initial the above book. The yarn should be weighed by the Store keeper in the presence of the Wool Spinning Supervisor. This book should be signed by the Jailor, once a week after check with the store keeper's book.

7. In the Weaving Section, the Cumbly Weaving Foreman should maintain a yarn receipt book for yarn received from the stores. He should also keep a warping book stating the length he wound on each beam. He should have further a loom Book stating the number of cumblies woven and sent to the stores. Every cumbly should be weigned in the presence of the Cumbly Weaving Foreman. The weight of each cumbly as also the total weight of all the cumblies should be recorded. The Store-keeper should sign this book and the Jailor should check and initial it once a week.

8. In passing the cumblies by the Police Department, the underweight cumblies are rejected but the overweights are passed. This is a loss to the Jail and should be rectified. The number of over-weight cumblies and their total weight should be reported to the Inspector General of Prisons promptly promptly after the passing of every supply.

9. The Cumbly Weaving Foreman should be supplied with a set of six healds, reeds and weaver's beams, so that there is no delay in getting a new warp to the loom. At present, much time is wasted for stoppages of loom for twisting and drawing.

these two officers, in the Cumbly Manufacturing Department there is also one Engine Driver who looks after the oil engine. His pay is Rs.28/- per mensem and his qualification is, certificate of competency in oil engine driving.

What is wanted now is to change the designation of the Wool Spinning Supervisor to that of "Manager" so that he may supervise the whole department and the work of the cumbly foreman and the engine driver without any extra expenditure.
